LA MOMIA MISTERIOSA

"Como en las mejores películas mudas, la falta de palabras convierte la obra de Jason en una reflexión sobre la condición humana universalmente accesible".

Jason (Molde, 1965), autor noruego afincado en Francia, ha demostrado a lo largo de los años que no hay personaje, género o argumento clásico que se le resista. Ha homenajeado a Hitchcock, ha hecho viajar atrás en el tiempo a un asesino para matar a Hitler o ha mandado a Marte un mosquetero, por ejemplo. Y todo ello con un sentido del humor que se parece tanto al desencanto que se confunde con él.

La momia misteriosa recopila numerosas historias cortas de Jason aparecidas en distintos medios, en las que el autor noruego hace gala de un humor absurdo absolutamente personal. Fatalista pero rebosante de ironía, Jason sabe divertir al lector encadenando situaciones que rápidamente se vuelven coherentes. Maestro del minimalismo y admirador de Hergé, Jason homenajea al autor de Tintín con guiños a Los cigarros del faraón o incluso a La oreja rota, sus policías nos recuerdan a Hernández y Fernández, pero el propósito es ácido y los personajes tan perturbados como si estuvieran en una película de Tarantino.
